Civil Air Patrol consists of local squadrons within the Kansas Wing. Choose the squadron closest to you from the "Local Squadron" navigation link to the left. There you will find local contact information and where the meetings are held. We welcome you to come and visit a local squadron to see how we benefit the local community and the nation.