

Kansas Wing Cadets Fly in KC-135

Contributed by 1st Lt. Kyle J. Velasquez
Wednesday, 24 September 2008
Last Updated Wednesday, 24 September 2008

TOPEKA, KANSAS -- Cadets from across the Kansas wing along with a few senior members flew on a KC-135R "Stratotanker" from the 190th Air Refueling Wing, Kansas Air National Guard. During the flight, cadets got to experience an actual mid-air refueling while the Boeing-built tanker refueled a Northrop-Grumman B-2 "Spirit" Bomber high above Missouri on Tuesday morning.