

Communications Officer

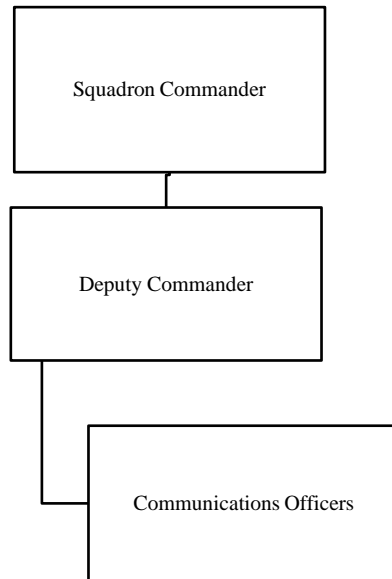

Revised 05 Jul 2016

Description

Manages and directs communications activities. They shall:

- Develop and implement communications plans, programs, and directives in close coordination and in support of command, and all operations programs and activities.
- Establish requirements and track acquisition and disposition of communication equipment in coordination with logistics.
- Coordinate communications and plans and programs with other staff agencies and with subordinate and higher headquarters.
- Coordinate licensing or frequency authorizations for all radio operations.
- Develop communications training programs.
- Develop and participate in communications exercises.
- Coordinate communications conferences, meetings, and workshops.
- Monitor unit communications
- Establish programs to maintain and operate unit radio equipment.

Chain of Command

Resources

CAPP 214 Specialty Track Study Guide

CAP directives in the 60, 62, 66, 77, and 100 series

NTIA manual of regulations and procedures for Federal Radio Frequency Management

FEMA Publications

Federal, state, and local MOUs requiring communications support.